[12.43.214(1)(d) CRS] A client is entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy; the techniques used; the duration of therapy (if known); and the fee structure. A client may seek a second opinion from another therapist or may terminate therapy at any time. In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is inappropriate and should be reported to the Grievance Board.

[12.43.214 (d)(d) CRS] PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS--The information provided by a client during therapy sessions is legally confidential in the case of licensed clinical social workers, except as provided in section 12.43.218 CRS and except for certain legal exceptions which will be identified by the licensee should any such situation arise during therapy.

I have been informed of my rights and my therapist's degrees, credentials and licenses. I have also read the preceding information and understand my rights as a client.
